Subject: Admission to Craft Instructor Training System (CITS) for Instructors having Diploma/ Degree qualification - clarification regarding

Sir/ Madam,

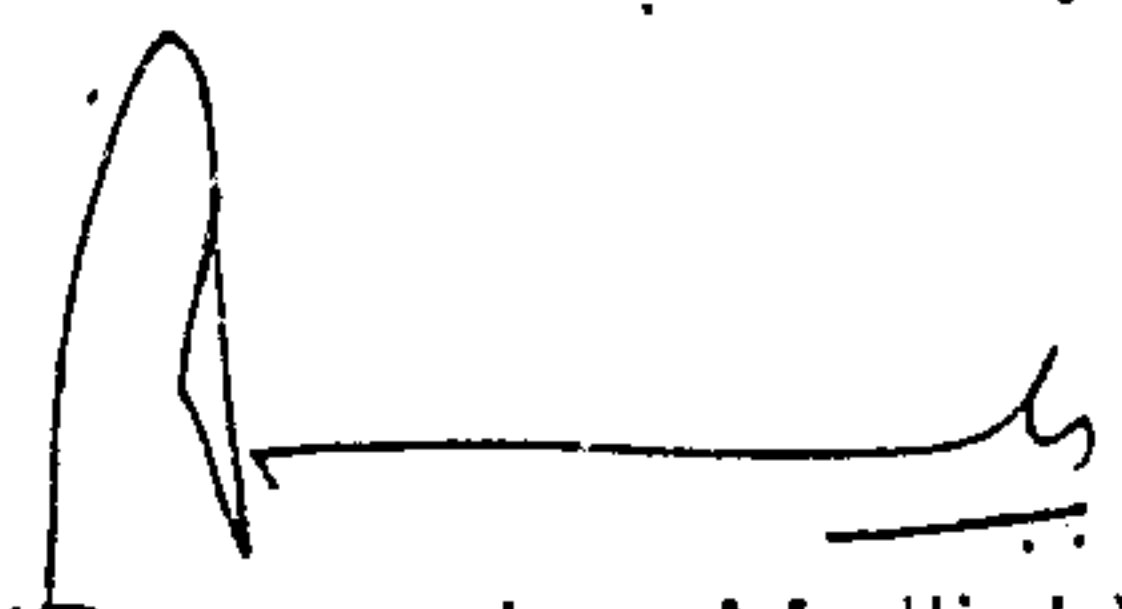

Please refer to para 3(ii) of the letter no. DGE&T-19/07(2)/2014-CD dated 26/05/2014 wherein following instructions were issued regarding Instructor training programme under the Craft Instructor Training System (CITS):

"Instructor having Diploma/ Degree qualification 3 years teaching experience will be allowed to appear directly in examination of 1st semester both in case of Engineering as well as non-Engineering trades. However they will have to go for regular training for 2nd semester."

2. In this context, it is informed that the "3 years teaching experience" as mentioned in the above para could be in Government institute as well as private institute.

3. Instances have been reported to this office that instructors having 3 years teaching experience in private institute are being denied the option of appearing directly in the 1st semester examination. Hence, it is clarified instructors having 3 years teaching experience in private institute should also be considered for appearing directly in the 1st semester examination if the Instructor training programme.

Yours faithfully,

(Deepankar Mallick)
