ORDER

As per the letter read as 1st paper above, the DGET has restructured the modular pattern of Craft Instructor Training Programme to one year duration consisting of two semesters with six months duration as under:-

i. For engineering trades, 1st semester has been restructured by combining trade technology-I (TT-I) and engineering technology (ET) and 2nd semester by combining trade technology II (TT-II) and training methodology (TM). For non-engineering trades, 1st semester has been restructured by combining trade skill-I and vocational calculation & science and 2nd semester by combining trade skill - II and training methodology. In both the above cases the examination will be conducted at the end of each semester.

ii. Instructors having diploma/degree qualification with 3 years teaching experience will be allowed to appear directly for 1st semester exam in both engineering and non-engineering trades. However, they will have to undergo regular training in 2nd semester.

2. Accordingly, as per the letter read as 5th paper above, the Director of Training has requested to modify the Government order read as 2nd paper above.

3. Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to issue the following norms and conditions for deputation of instructors for Craft Instructor Training, in supersession of all the Government orders read above:-

i. Successful completion of all semesters of craft instructor training is compulsory for all instructors under the Kerala Craftsman Training Subordinate Service Rules to get regular promotion, except those who successfully completed the twelve months conventional craft instructor training or all modules of modular pattern of craft instructor training conducted by DGE&T.

ii. Those instructors who availed one time relaxation are entitled to promotional benefits as per rules. However, they must undergo training in the remaining modules of the modular pattern of craft instructor training. If any such instructors continue in Kerala Craftsman Training Subordinate Service Rules and still remain untrained, they shall undergo training in the semester pattern. Otherwise they will not be eligible for promotion.

iii. It is obligatory for all instructors deputed by Industrial Training Department in Kerala Craftsman Training Subordinate Service to undergo the craft instructor training within 3 years from the date of entry in service. However, those instructors who belong to trades in which no craft instructor training is conducted by DGE&T, is exempted from craft instructor training; but such instructors shall undergo craft instructor training, if and when craft instructor training is introduced by DGE&T for those trades. Also those who could not undergo craft instructor training for no fault of theirs are also eligible for promotion, but such instructors shall undergo craft instructor training when deputed by Industrial Training department. In case the instructors who enjoyed such promotional benefits and failed to attend craft instructor training, the promotional benefits awarded to them will be withdrawn with effect from the date of order of deputation to training. They are eligible for promotion with effect from the date of successful completion of craft instructor training.
