Labour & Skills Department - All India Trade Test - Validity of Consolidated Mark Sheet & e-National Trade Certificate - Orders issued.

DEPARTMENT

G.O.(Rt)No. 74/2017/LBR Dated,Thiruvananthapuram,19/01/2017

Read: Letter No.G1/110/16 from the Director of Training dated 22.04.2016

ORDER

As per the letter read as 1st paper above, the Director of Training invited attention to the hesitancy among various agencies, including Government institutions, in accepting the consolidated mark sheet and e-National Trade Certificate distributed by the Director General of Training to ITI trainees who have successfully passed the All India Trade Test (AITT). The Director requested to issue a direction validating the authenticity of the documents.

2. Government have examined the matter in detail and hereby declare that the consolidated mark sheet and e-National Trade Certificate, along with a Quick Response (QR) Code, distributed by the Director General of Training to ITI trainees who have successfully passed the AITT, under the semester system, are valid documents and that consolidated mark sheet may be considered as equivalent to the Provisional Trade Certificate, previously issued by the Industrial Training Department.

3. The Director of Industrial Training Department will take necessary steps to bring the above Government direction to the notice of all the concerned Government/Public Sector/Private/Foreign Institutions.
