ORDER

As per the Government order referred as 4th above permission has been granted to Government departments to avail the service of M/s MSTC Ltd, for disposing of scrap vehicles/materials through e-auction for a further period of three years.

As per circular referred as 5th above it has been directed that henceforth all Government departments, Local Self Government Institutions and all other institutions under Government shall make use of the service of M/s MSTC Ltd for the sale of usable or scrap vehicles/materials and the sale of such items shall not be made by any other means without the consent of the Government. As per the circular read as 6th paper above directions have been issued to the effect that all Government departments, PSUs, Grant in aid Institutions or any other Government entities shall use MSTC or GeM platform for sale of any usable Serviceable articles arising out of Government offices/PSU/LSGIs, it was also insisted that the said officers/Institutions shall not conduct sale of any such items by any other means without prior permission of Government.

In the meanwhile, the Director Kerala State IT Mission vide his letter read above, has reported that e-auction India has been envisaged as a single platform to cater to various kinds of Government Departments and PSUs. NIC had offered to provide e-auction instance to Kerala with a condition that it would be free of cost for all those States who are funding the NIC e-Procurement system. The Director has requested to grant permission for using NIC's e-auction platform for auctioning for Government Department and Institutions.

There is a lacuna in the Circular read as 6th above that GeM Platform has omitted to include for using auctioning of unserviceable stores and materials even if Government have decided to use GeM also along with MSTC for auctioning of unserviceable/scrap stores articles and materials.

In the above circumstances Government are pleased to order that all Government departments, Local Self Government Institutions and all other institutions under Government shall make use of the service of e-auction platforms of M/s MSTC Ltd or GeM or NIC (NIC e-Auction India services) for the sale of any usable/unusable /Serviceable /Unserviceable Stores, materials/articles including scrap and old vehicles. It is also insisted that the said offices/Institutions shall not conduct sale of any such items by any other means without prior permission of Government. The choice of acution platform in left to the users to be exercised on the basis of cost effectiveness and user friendliness.
