No. DGET-19/17/2010-CD
Government of India
Ministry of Labour & Employment
Directorate General for Employment & Training

Dated 15/4/2011

To,

Directors dealing with Craftsmen Training Scheme (CTS) of All State Governments / UT Administrations.

Subject: Implementation of subject “Employability Skills” in place of subject “Social Study” under CTS—regarding

Sir,

The Government of India accepted the above recommendations of the Council for implementation. Accordingly, a syllabus covering all the above topics has been drafted which was discussed in a trade committee meeting held under the chairmanship of Director General Employment Training on 24th December, 2010. The syllabus has now been finalised by incorporating comments and suggestion offered by experts during the meeting. This syllabi has also been approved by members of NCVT for implementation. Final copy of the syllabus is enclosed.

The subject “Employability Skills” would replace Social Study subject under CTS from Session starting from August, 2011. General Instruction for implementation of curricula are as under:

1. Subject be taught by existing instructors of Social Study, properly trained in new areas or by guest/contract faculty.
2. Training to be imparted using comprehensive study material/Question Bank developed by DGE&T.
3. Subject will be included under “All India Trade Test” with 50 marks in place of Social Study and trainees have to secure minimum 40% marks to pass the subject.
4. The course be introduced from the session starting from August, 2011 for all schemes of DGE&T. Holidays and after training hrs may be used for completing the syllabus.
5. If necessary, after training hrs may be used for completing the syllabus.

As this is the new subject being introduced in Govt. & Pvt. ITIs therefore, need has been felt that there should be comprehensive study material covering all the five subject for use of trainees of the institutes. Accordingly, study material covering all the five topics as per the curricula is being developed by National Instructional Media Institute, Guindy, Chennai. You are requested to submit your requirement for study material to Director, National Instructional Media Institute, Guindy, Chennai.

Yours faithfully

(R.L. Singh)*
